

Hajj Guide

What is Hajj?

Linguistically Hajj means 'to exert effort' and the Sharee' (Islamic) understanding is to visit Makkah and the surrounding area for the purpose of performing certain rites ordained by Allah. These specific places are Masjid ul Haram, Arafat, Mina and Muzdalifa. It is specific to time and can only be performed in the Islamic month of Dhul-Hijja from 8th – 13th.

Hajj is an act of worship which combines verbal, physical, spiritual and financial actions.

Acts of Hajj Comprise of Three Categories

1. Pillars that one must perform so as not to invalidate his Hajj, because they cannot be compensated.
2. Obligatory acts that necessitate offering a sacrifice if they are not performed, without invalidating one's Hajj.
3. Voluntary and recommended acts of Sunnah that complete the pilgrim's reward.

Hajj has four pillars (Arkan). Omitting them will make Hajj invalid.

1. Ihram - Making the intention to perform Umrah and the State of Ihram (Prohibition / Sacredness).
2. Sa'ee - Walking between Mount Safa & Marwa
3. Waqfat Arafah - Staying in Arafah
4. Tawaf Al-Ifaadah (Farewell Tawaf)

Hajj has 7 obligatory acts i.e. Omitting them will incur a penalty They are:

1. Entering the state of Ihram before the Meeqat point
2. Staying at the grounds of Arafah
3. Staying at Muzdalifa
4. Staying at Mina
5. Throwing Stones at the Jamara
6. Trim/Shaving the hair

Brief History of Hajj

Ibrahim (peace be upon him) was commanded by Allah to build a house for His worship in Makkah. Allah called it His house, raised its status to 'Masjid ul Haram' (the Sacred Mosque) and made it the Qibla for all Muslims. One of the supplications Ibrahim (peace be upon him) made to Allah was;

Our Lord, and make us Muslims (in submission) to You and from our descendants a Muslim nation (in submission) to you. And show us our rites and accept our repentance, Indeed, You are the Accepting of repentance, the Merciful. (Surah Al- Baqarah, 2: 128)

Once the building work was completed, Allah commanded Ibrahim (peace be upon him) to make the call for pilgrimage. And proclaim to the people the Hajj (Pilgrimage): they will come to you on foot and on every lean camel: they will come from every distant pass.

Muslims from around the globe visit the house proclaiming, "Here I am, O Allah, here I am," and it will carry on until the Day of Judgement.

Pillar

Ibn Umar reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Islam is built upon five: to worship Allah and to disbelieve in what is worshiped besides him, to establish prayer, to give charity, to perform Hajj pilgrimage to the house, and to fast the month of Ramadan." (Sahih Bukhari & Sahih Muslim)

Allah says in the Qu'ran

And (due) to Allah from the people is a pilgrimage to the House – for whoever is able to find thereto a way. But whoever disbelieves – then indeed, Allah is free from need of the worlds. (Surah Al-Imran, 97).

Reward & Essence of Hajj

Obligation

Able in the verse means that a person (Muslim) has the physical ability (sound mind, maturity) and financial capacity to perform Hajj. Its obligation is similar to the obligation of prayer, Zakah and fasting. There is no difference any of these obligations.

Anyone who is able to perform Hajj and delays it is considered to be sinful. Umar (Allah be pleased with him) said, "I wish to send workers to areas and place Jizya (tax) on people who do not perform Hajj even though they have the ability as they are not considered Muslims."

Abu Hurairahh narrated that the Messenger of Allah said,

"Umrah to Umrah atones for the sins between them, and for a Hajj Al-Mabrur there is no reward except Paradise." (Jami` at-Tirmidhi)

In another narration it is mentioned that Abu Hurairahh narrated, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever performs Hajj to this House (Ka`bah) and does not approach his wife for sexual relations nor commits sins (while performing Hajj), he will come out as sinless as a newly born child. (Just delivered by his mother)."

Hajj is the symbol of Tawheed (the Oneness of Allah) from the first moment the pilgrim enters ihraam.

Jaabir ibn 'Abd-Allah said, describing the Hajj of the Prophet ﷺ "Then he started to say the words of Tawheed, "Labbayka Allahumma labbayk, labbayka laa shareeka laka labbayk. Inna al-hamd wa'lni'mata laka wa'l-mulk, laa shareeka lak (Here I am, O Allah, here I am. Here I am, You have no partner, here I am. Verily all praise and blessings are Yours, and all sovereignty, You have no partner)." (Muslim, Bulugh al-Maram).

Anas Allah be pleased with him said, describing how the Messenger of

Allah ﷻ entered ihraam, that he said, "Labbayka 'Umrata laa riyaa'a fiha wa la sum'ah (Here I am for Umrah in which there is no showing off or seeking reputation)."

This enriches the soul to acknowledge the Oneness of Allah and to be sincere towards Him. The pilgrim starts his Hajj with Tawheed, and continues to recite the Talbiyah with its words of Tawheed, and he moves from one action to the next with Tawheed. The overall purpose of Hajj is to practically implement monotheism and to acknowledge Allah's greatness, His Oneness.

Allah says in the Qu'ran,

And [mention, O Muhammad], when We designated for Abraham the site of the House, [saying], "Do not associate anything with Me and purify My House for those who perform Tawaf and those who stand [in prayer] and those who bow and prostrate. (Qu'ran, 22:26)

It is one time of year when all acts of Ibadah (worship) are being performed, Oneness of Allah, Prayer, Fasting, Charity and Pilgrimage. The fact that millions of Muslims from different race, level of practice, economics and social barriers visit Makkah in unity attesting to oneness of Allah shows the universal message of Hajj.

As written above, It highlights the fallacy of ranking the status of individuals based on the ostentatious matters of this world and allows us to attribute value to what truly matters: piety and god-consciousness. As one of the scholars beautifully put it, "Hajj is an experience that equalizes people."

Hajj Mindset

Every year 2-3 million Muslims perform Hajj. Managing the pilgrims on a such a large scale will certainly bring some delay, reduction in service quality and incidents which may test a pilgrim's patience.

Remember Hajj is not a holiday. Muslims in the past and during the time of the Prophet ﷺ faced far greater trials. Today a pilgrim's trial is delay in reaching a destination, another pilgrim snoring or less fancy Mina facilities. An advice will be to travel with a broader perspective.

A Pilgrim is a Guest of Allah. We all want Allah's Pleasure. We are performing Hajj to fulfil Allah's command with full submission and acceptance. A pilgrim should follow and perform rituals as the Prophet ﷺ performed them, and in doing so, if any difficulty arises, they should be patient and trust Allah. A pilgrim should also ignore another pilgrim's snoring for Allah created the person like it. A pilgrim should smile and move on for Allah's sake.

A pilgrim should interact with everyone as they would interact with their family member, to whom they feel very close to.

A pilgrim will then find that this journey to be a journey of a lifetime.

It is very important to have a correct mindset. Any act of worship is performed for Allah and our focus has to be to attain Allah's' pleasure and in order to achieve it, we will be faced with some challenges. Shaytaan will always be there to try and divert our intention and ruin our Hajj. We have to be strong, firm and have plenty of patience in order to achieve goodness in our actions.

Make Dua to Allah for steadfastness and hope for the good.

Hajj Overview

The rites of Hajj take place over a period of six days and five nights from the 8th to the 13th of Dhul Hijjah. Pilgrims have the option of leaving the grounds of Mina on the 12th. Some pilgrims choose to remain in Mina up to the 13th and thus complete the Prophet's Sunnah. The rites performed during Hajj are the same as those performed by the Prophet during his final Hajj in 10AH (623 CE).

Hajj begins on the 8th of Dhul Hijjah, known as Yawm al-Tarwiyah (the Day of Drinking), during which pilgrims wear their Ihram garments and make their intention for Hajj. They make their way to Mina, where they perform their daily prayers (shortened) but in their time and stay overnight.

On the 9th of Dhul Hijjah, known as Yawm al-Arafat (the Day of Arafat), pilgrims travel to the grounds of Arafat after Fajr Salah. They combine Dhuhr and Asr prayers and spend time supplicating during Wuquf (stay), which is the most IMPORTANT rite of Hajj. After sunset, pilgrims travel to Muzdalifah where they combine Maghrib and Isha prayers and spend the night under the sky.

On the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, known as Yawm al-Nahr (the Day of Slaughtering), after performing Fajr Salah in Muzdalifah, pilgrims return to Mina, where they throw seven pebbles at Jamarah al-Aqaba / Kubra (the big pillar), perform an animal sacrifice, have their hair cut and then go to Masjid ul Haram to perform Tawaf al-Ziyarah and the Sa'ee of Hajj after which they are released from the major state of Ihram. After which they then return to Mina.

From the 11th-13th of Dhul-Hijjah, known as Ayyam al-Tashreeq (the Days of Drying Meat), pilgrims spend time in Mina and each day throw 21 pebbles at all three Jamarat (7 per Jamarat). If Tawaf al-Ziyarah, Sa'ee of Hajj, animal sacrifice or the haircut was not performed on the 10th, these actions can then be carried out on these days. The pilgrims then return to Makkah to perform Tawaf al-Wida (farewell) as the final rite before going home or departing to Madinah.

Hajj Rites & Season

During Hajj, a pilgrim performs Tawaf, depending on the type of Hajj and then carries out certain religious rites at specific locations.

Mina & Jamarah (Stoning Area)

Pilgrims will spend majority of their time (5 of the 6 days) in Mina. Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) was given his most significant test that ultimately led to him earning the title of the "intimate/close friend of Allah."

Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) was commanded to sacrifice his son Ismail (peace be upon him), whom he loved dearly for Allah's sake. Ibrahim (peace be upon him) had longed patiently for Ismail and was only granted the blessing of his birth when Ibrahim was 80+ year old. Both father and son had built a very significant bond of mutual love, respect and mercy. So this was a most thorough examination of Ibrahim's faith. The fulfillment of this test took place in Mina and Allah loved Ibrahim's submission and demonstration of faith, servitude and sacrifice so much, that He made it a part of the Hajj; with Mina being the place from which a pilgrim commences his Hajj.

The region currently known as Jamarat (the place of stoning) is the place where Ibrahim (peace be upon him) went to fulfill Allah's command to sacrifice Ismail (peace be upon him). In this regard, Allah says,

When the boy was old enough to work with his father, Ibrahim said, 'My son, I have seen myself sacrificing you in a dream. What do you think?' He said, 'Father, do as you are commanded and, God willing, you will find me steadfast.' When they had both submitted to God, and he had laid his son down on the side of his face, We called out to him, 'Ibrahim, you have fulfilled the dream.' This is how We reward those who do good - it was a test to prove [their true character] - We ransomed his son with a momentous sacrifice, and We let him be praised by succeeding generations: 'Peace be upon Abraham!' This is how We reward those who do good. [Quran, 37:102-110]

Arafah

Pilgrims gather on the grounds of 'Arafah' on 9th Dhul-Hijja. The time of Dua/prayer is between Dhuhr – Mahgrib (Midday – Sunset). Pilgrims follow the practice of Prophet ﷺ and offer Dhuhr and Asr prayer shortened at Dhuhr time. It is the most important day of Hajj.

The Prophet ﷺ said, "Hajj is Arafah." (Tirmidhi)

Arafat means mutual recognition and acquaintance. Prophet ﷺ delivered a sermon the Day of Arafah and said,

"O' mankind, acquaint yourselves with one another and recognise that there is no superiority over the white over the black or the Arab over the non-Arab. This is the beauty of the Hajj where Muslims from all corners of the globe are gathered together to worship their Lord and are not divided by flags or borders that have no basis or significant in the deen of Allah."

When we truly come to understand the hadith that "Hajj is Arafah." We will then gain a true understanding of the Prophet ﷺ statement that this Ummah is one body.

Muzdalifa

Muzdalifa is an open area outside Makkah. Pilgrims make their way to it after spending the day at Arafah. On reaching, pilgrims will combine Mahgrib and Isha' Salaah and then attempt to get some rest. This is also the location that pilgrims collect stones to throw in the Jamarah (stoning area). Stones are thrown at three pillars: 'Jamarah Al-Kubra, Jamara Al-Wusta and Jamarah As-Sugra' to replicate the actions of Ibrahim (peace be upon him) as discussed above. When throwing these stones, a pilgrim will proclaim Allah's Greatness, reinforcing the Greatness of Allah over the plots and whispering of the Shaytaan.

Hajj Flow

Hajj Types

There are three types of Hajj that a pilgrim may perform. The recommended Hajj is Tamattu'.

Types of Hajj and What is Involved?

1 | Qirān - Perform Umrah & Hajj with ONE intention

- Wear Ihram garments, make intention for Umrah and Hajj.
- Perform Umrah. Upon completion, STAY in the STATE OF IHRAM.
- On 8th Dhul Hijjah, start Hajj rites by moving to Mina.
- Slaughter an animal on 10th Dhul Hijjah and complete rites.
- On completing Hajj, the state of Ihram ends.

Note: Pilgrims remain in the STATE OF IHRAM from start of the journey of pilgrimage (Umrah) until the end (Hajj rites).

2 | Tamattu' - Perform Umrah & Hajj with two separate intentions

- Make intention for Umrah. Perform Umrah.
- Upon completion, come out from the state of Ihram.
- On 8th Dhul Hijjah, WEAR the garments of Ihram and make intention for Hajj.
- Perform the rites of Hajj.
- Slaughter an animal on 10th Dhul Hijjah & complete rites.
- On completing Hajj, the state of Ihram ends.

3 | Ifrād - One intention for the sole purpose of performing Hajj

- On 8th Dhul Hijjah, wear Ihram garments and come in state of Ihram by making the intention for Hajj ONLY.
- Perform Hajj rites.
- Upon completing the Hajj the state of Ihram ends.

Note: NO SACRIFICE

Prohibitions

The state of Ihram starts once you have made the intention for Umrah or Hajj. There are certain prohibitions that come in place after entering in to the state of Ihram, such as:

- Using perfume.
- Anointing the head or beard with oil, gel or melted wax.
- Removing or cutting the fingernails, toenails or hair.
- Covering the head (for men).
- Covering the face and wearing gloves (for women).
- For men to wear clothes designed to surround the body via sewing or felting (i.e. stitched clothing).
- Any marriage proposal.
- Sexual intercourse or being intimate.
- Hunting an edible, wild or land animal.

Note:

Remember when going on Hajj or Umrah; it is not a holiday. Clear your intention. Travel time, standing in long queues and the standard of the hotels may not be what you are usually accustomed to, but you should avoid criticising or complaining. Instead try to have patience. The stay at the Mina tents can be challenging but if you go with a clear objective of togetherness, loving fellow Muslims for the sake of Allah, and forgiving any shortcomings, then InshAllah you will find it to be the journey of your life!

Starting Hajj

Pilgrims who are performing Hajj Qirān should continue to remain in the state of Ihram after completing their Umrah, and not change into their normal clothes. Please read 'State of Ihram' on Page 5.

If you are going to perform Hajj Tamattu' or Hajj Ifrād, then wear your Ihram Clothes on 8th Dhul-Hijja and prepare to make the intention. Sisters who think their monthly cycle will start or has already started, they should also make the intention and complete their Hajj rites except for making Tawaf. They can then perform Tawaf once their cycle has finished.

اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ حَجًّا

If I am prevented by any obstacle, my place is wherever I am held up.

After the duas, you can start saying the talbiya individually.

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ - لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ - إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنَّعْمَةَ لَكَ
وَالْمُلْكُ - لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ

Say

Labbayk Allahumma labbayk. Labbayka lā sharīka laka labbayk. Innal hamda wan ni'mata laka wal mulk. Lā sharīka lak.

Virtues of 'Arafah

Mindset for Day 2 - Arafah

The Prophet said, "Hajj is Arafah."

It is the day on which Allah took the covenant from the progeny of Adam. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Allah took the covenant from the loins of Adam in Na'mān, (i.e., 'Arafah).

"And [mention] when your Lord took from the children of Adam - from their loins - their descendants and made them testify of themselves, [saying to them], "Am I not your Lord?" They said, "Yes, we have testified." [This] - lest you should say on the day of Resurrection, "Indeed, we were of this unaware."

[Surah Al-A'raaf, 7:172-173, Narrated by Ahmad]

It is the day of forgiveness of sins, freedom from the Fire and pride in the people who are there. The Prophet ﷺ said:

"There is no day on which Allah frees more people from the Fire than the Day of 'Arafah. He comes close and expresses His pride to the angels, saying, 'What do these people want?'"

[Muslim]

The Prophet also said:

"Allah expresses His pride to His angels at the time of 'Ishaa' on the Day of 'Arafah, about the people of 'Arafah. He says, 'Look at My slaves who have come unkempt and dusty.'"

[Ahmad]

It is the day on which the religion was perfected and Allah's Favour was completed.

Umar ibn al-Khattab reported that a Jewish man said to him,

"O Amīr al-Mu'minīn, there is an āyah in your Book which you recite; if it had come to us Jews, we would have taken that day as an 'Eid (festival)."

Umar said, "Which āyah?" He said: "This day I have perfected your religion for you, completed My favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islām as your religion." Umar said, "We know on which day and in which place that was revealed to the Prophet. It was when he was standing in 'Arafah on a Friday."

[Surah Al-Māidah, 5:3, Narrated by Bukhārī]

It is related from Anas bin Mālīk that he used to say in terms of virtue,

"The Day of 'Arafah is equivalent to ten thousand days."

Among the virtues of the Day of Arafah is constantly proclaiming the Declaration of Allah's Oneness with sincerity and honesty, for it is the foundation of the religion that Allah completed this day and its base.

It is reported the supplication the Prophet would repeat most often on the Day of 'Arafah was:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ، وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ ، لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ

، وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

Lā ilāha ilAllahu wahdahu lā sharīka lah, lahul mulku wa lahul hamdu, wa huwa 'ala kulli shay'in qadīr.

"None has the right to be worshipped except Allah, alone, without partner. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is over all things omnipotent."

[Ahmad]

Day 2 of Hajj

According to the Hanafi Madhab, Dhuhr and Asr can only be combined in Masjid Al-Namirah behind the Imam and not in tents at Mina. Please consult your religious guide for further guidance.

Remembrance / Du'ā for the Day of 'Arafah:

[Bukhāri, Muslim]

Jabir (Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said,

The best places to which a person may travel are this Mosque of mine and the ancient House (Ka'bah).
[Ahmad]

Abu Hurairahh (Allah be pleased with him) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ also said,

[Bukhāri, Muslim]

Virtues of Madinah

1 | Praying in Riyādul Jannah

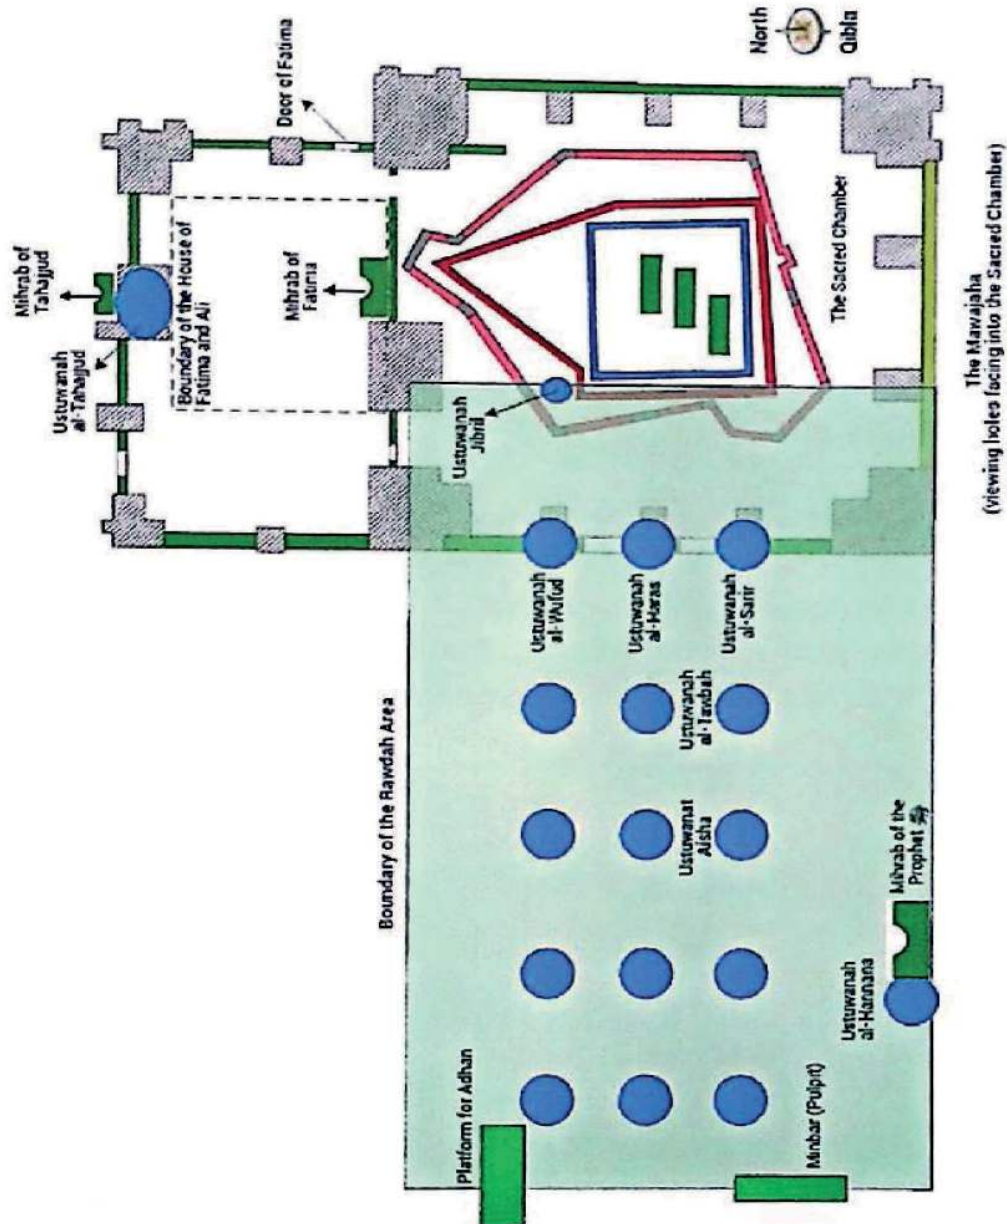

Abu Hurairah (Allah be pleased with him) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said,

"The area between my house and my Mimbar is one of my gardens of Paradise and my Mimbar is on my cistern (hawd)."
[Bukhāri, Muslim]

A very important point to note is that pushing and harming people is not permissible just to pray in Riyadul Jannah. Also, there is no specific number of units mentioned. So if you want, you can pray two voluntary units and then give others an opportunity to pray. Use the app to book your time.

Riyādul Jannah Area

The Mawajaha
(viewing holes facing into the Sacred Chamber)

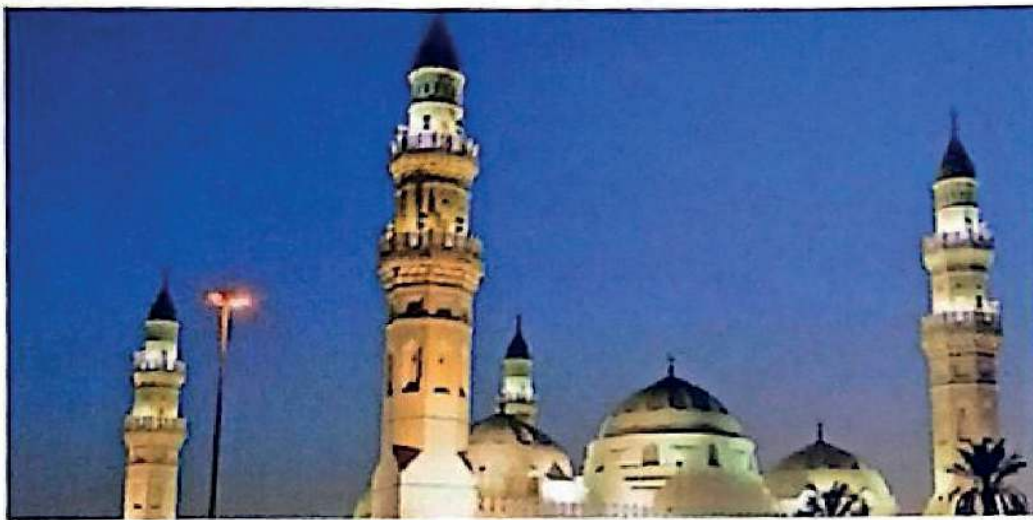

There are six pillars or columns inside the Rawdah area within Masjid Nabawi that hold special historical and spiritual significance, with a further two inside the Sacred Chamber. These blessed pillars stand on the exact locations where the original pillars, made from palm-tree trunks, stood after Masjid Nabawi was built during the life of the Prophet ﷺ. From that time until the present day, those who extended, rebuilt or extended the mosque were very careful in preserving the original location of these pillars.

2 | Visiting Masjid Al-Quba

Visiting Masjid Al-Quba has great reward in it because the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said,

Whoever goes out until he comes to this Mosque (Quba) and prays there, that will be equivalent to an Umrah

3 | Visit the Baqi Graveyard

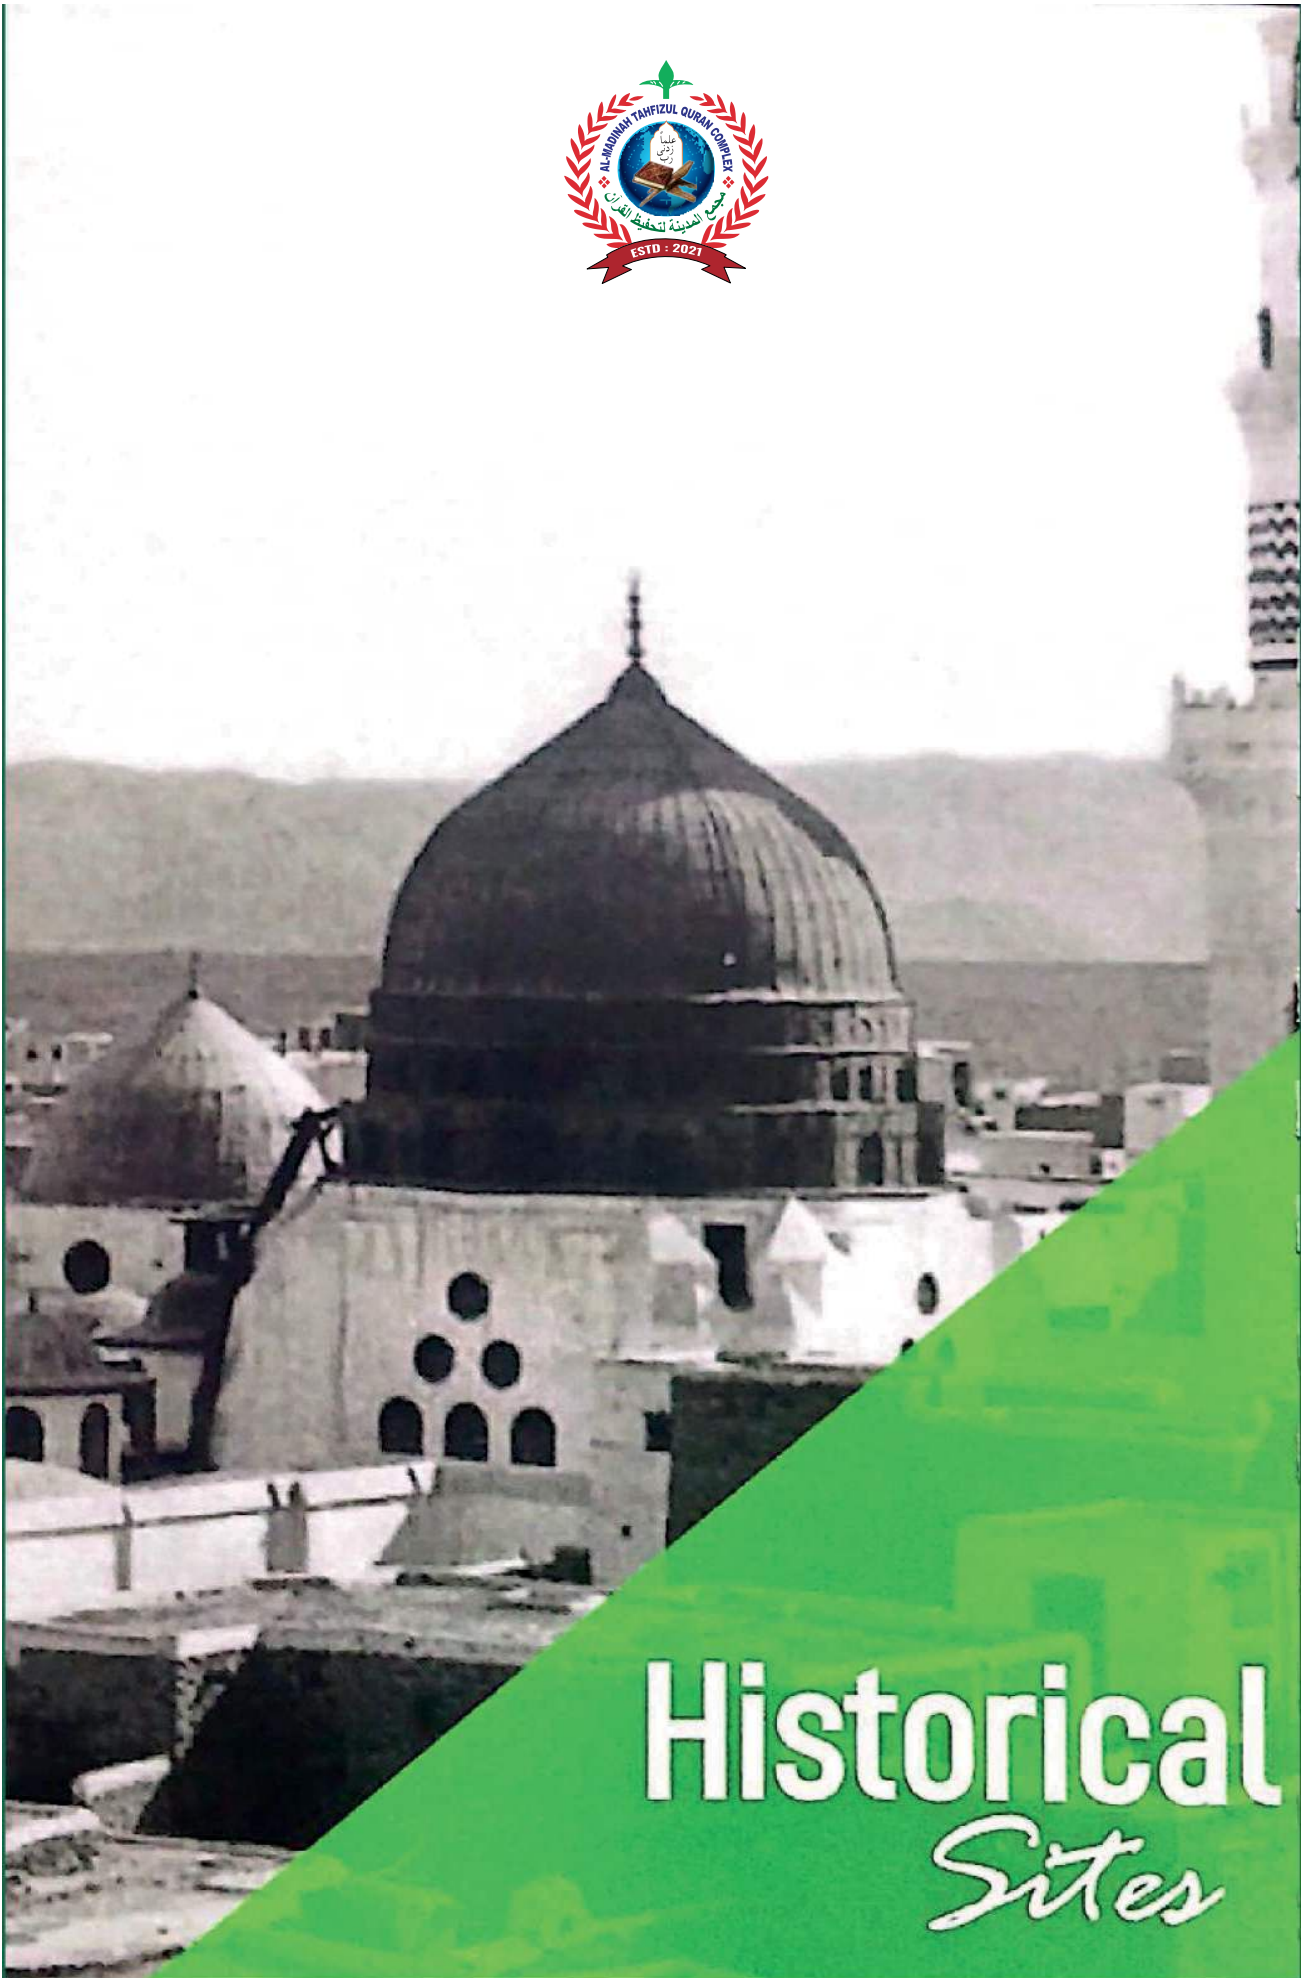

Over 10,000+ Companions of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ are buried in Baqi, including many of the Prophet's household family members. Men can follow a funeral and take part in the burial for great reward. Below is the Dua for visiting any graveyard.

Baqi Graveyard

Over 10,000+ Companions of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ are buried in Baqi, including many of the Prophet's family members. Men can follow a funeral and take part in the burial for great reward.

It was narrated that Ibn Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Whoever can manage to die in Madinah, let him die there, for I will intercede for whoever dies there." (Narrated by al-Tirmidhi, no. 3917)

Sulaiman b. Buraida narrated on the authority of his father that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to teach them when they went out to the graveyard. "Peace be upon the inhabitants of the city (i. e. graveyard)." In another hadith it is mentioned, "Peace be upon you, the inhabitants of the city, among the believers, and Muslims, and God willing we shall join you. I beg of Allah peace for us and for you." (Sahih Muslim 975)

Historical Sites in Madinah

Masjid Al-Qiblatayn

Masjid Al-Qiblatayn's uniqueness is famous amongst mosques. In the early era of Islam, Jerusalem used to be the direction of the Qibla for Muslims.

After revelation from Allah, Muslims were instructed to now direct their prayers towards the Ka'bah in Makkah. A group of Companions were praying when a Companion who had already prayed earlier with Prophet Muhammad ﷺ passed by them and mentioned the order of the direction of the Qibla had changed to Makkah. The Companions then changed their direction from facing Jerusalem to Makkah whilst in prayer.

Madinah Train Station

You can take a taxi and go to see the Train Station of Madinah. It was built during the time of the Ottomans and after the fall of the empire it has not been used.

Badr

Badr is a small city situated outside Madinah. It is around 1 ½ hours away. The first battle between Muslims and people of Quraish took place in Badr where the Muslims were victorious.

The Battle of Badr took place on the 17th of Ramadan, two years after the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah.

It is around 70 miles from Madinah and around 100 miles by road. It takes over 1hr and 45 mins to reach Badr by car. In the time of the Prophet ﷺ it would have taken much longer to reach there.

Battle of Khandaq

The Battle of Khandaq took place in the 5th Hijri (After Migration). Masjid al-Fath is the largest of the group of mosques known as al-Masajid al-Sab'a or The Seven Mosques. It is the site at which the Prophet ﷺ supplicated during the Battle of Khandaq.

It is confirmed that An-Nasaa'i and others reported that when the Companions were digging Al-Khandaq (i.e. the trench), they found a rock which was too immense for their spades to break up. So, they sought the help of the Prophet.

He struck the rock three times, and each time he would strike it, a bright light would spark – and in another narration it was like a light in the middle of a dark night. This is evidence that the three sparks came up with each strike. He took the spade, and struck the rock uttering, "Allahu Akbar (Allah is The Greatest)! The keys of ancient Syria are granted to me, I swear by Allah, I can see its palaces at the moment"; on the second strike he said, "Allahu Akbar (i.e. Allah is The Greatest), Persia is granted to me, I swear by Allah, I can now see the white palace of Madain"; on the third strike he said: "Allahu Akbar (i.e. Allah is The Greatest), I have been given the keys of Yemen, I swear by Allah, I can see the gates of Sana' while I am in my place." [Ahmad].

All these countries were conquered exactly as the Prophet informed us, but they were not all conquered at the same time. The first city to be conquered in Ancient Syria was Busra, it was conquered in a peace treaty during the reign of Abu Bakr as stated by Ibn Katheer. Umar continued its conquest and conquered Persia as well.

Ibn Sa'd when speaking about the conquests of Umar said, "He conquered the entire Iraq, Azerbaijan, Al-Basra, Persia, and ancient Syria."

As regards to Yemen, Islam spread in it during the reign of the Prophet ﷺ and Mu'ath ibn Jabal was sent there by the Prophet ﷺ to rule over it. Then, Al-Aswad Al-Ansi took power over it until Fayrooz killed him during the last period of the reign of the Prophet.

Garden of Abu Talha

Anas Ibn Malik is reported as saying, Abu Talha was the one among the Ansar of Madinah who possessed the largest property and among his property he valued most was his garden known as Bairaha' which was opposite the mosque, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ often visited it and he drank of its sweet water. When this verse was revealed, "You will never attain righteousness till you give freely of what you love." (iii. 91), Abu Talha got up and, going to Allah's Messenger ﷺ, said, Allah says in His Book: "You will never attain righteousness till you give freely of what you love," and the dearest of my property is Bairaha' so I give it as Sadaqah to God from Whom I hope for reward for it and the treasure with Allah; so spend it, Messenger of Allah, on whatever purpose you deem it proper. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Well done! that is a profitable deal, that is a profitable deal. I have heard what you have said, but I think you should spend it on your nearest relatives." So Abu Talha distributed it among the nearest relatives and his cousins on his father's side. (Sahih Muslim 998a).
