

HAJJ & UMRAH

A STEP BY STEP GUIDE WITH ILLUSTRATIONS

From Author

I thank Allah subhānahu wa ta'āla for giving me the opportunity and Tawfiq to produce a simple step by step Hajj and Umrah guide. I make Dua that Allah accepts this initiative.

Over the years of frequently visiting the House of Allah, I was often approached by pilgrims who would inquire about various acts pertaining to Hajj and Umrah. My desire to make ease for everyone who has been honoured to make this journey of a lifetime; led me to compile this simple guide. I believe this booklet will help pilgrims to perform their Hajj and Umrah with so much more confidence and understanding, InshaAllah.

I have kept the booklet simple and brief; so the pilgrim gains swift understanding of the rituals; and devote the rest of their time engaging the heart and mind with Dua and Dhikr. I have included summarized points; covering some of the historical significance of certain places and actions.

I have also added information on visiting Madinah al Munawarah, since every pilgrim visits the city of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

My Dua is for every pilgrim to truly connect to Allah and to every ritual they perform. Every step of this journey is a step of obedience and a means of drawing close to Allah. We should find strength and comfort in the remembrance of Allah through all the rituals. This is a journey of purification and repentance; and most importantly coming back with a renewed Iman and a cleansed soul.

Allah has invited you to His House and has granted you an opportunity to draw close to Him and purify yourself. I pray that through this initiative, a pilgrim is able to visit the Ka'aba and perform the rituals with such devotion and submission that he returns in the most purest state; like a new born baby. I pray Allah accepts this effort and gives me sincerity. Ameen.

The Essence of Ibaadah

The question of why you would like to embark on this journey of Umrah or Hajj is a gating one and so must be conclusively answered before one engages in any one of these mighty acts of worship, for the reward of every act of worship depends on the sincerity of the intention (as the Prophet ﷺ informs us in an oft-repeated hadith:

Umar ibn al-Khattab reported: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, said, *"Verily, deeds are only with intentions and every person will have only what they intended. Whoever emigrated to Allah and His Messenger, his emigration is for Allah and His Messenger. Whoever emigrated to get something in the world or to marry a woman, his emigration is for that to which he emigrated."*¹

As we know, Hajj and Umrah are from the greatest and most virtuous acts of ibadah in this religion. This therefore begs the question, what is ibadah?

Ibadah is the Arabic term for worship and is derived from the Arabic word 'Abd, which means slave. Allah is our Rab (Master) and our Khaaliq (Creator) and we are his creation, his slaves, his worshipers. Every action that a slave (Abd) performs in order to attain the pleasure of his creator (Allah) is called Ibadah (worship).

Through his infinite Mercy, Allah has made the concept of Ibadah wide. Therefore, to obey Allah's commands, to free ourselves from malice and falsehood, to speak the truth in order to attain Allah's pleasure, are all considered as Ibadah. If we engage in commerce, business or other matters of the Dunya (world) while display qualities of righteousness, they too will be considered as Ibadah (worship). Equally, if we work to provide for our families, assist

Grade: Muttafaqun Alayhi (authenticity agreed upon) according to Al-Bukhari and Muslim the destitute and poor, feed the hungry and help those in need, only to gain Allah's pleasure, then all of these actions will also be encompassed by the term "Ibadah."

Why are you performing Umrah/Hajj?

As per the hadith of Prophet ﷺ, a pilgrim visiting the Ka'bah for the purpose of Umrah and Hajj is considered a guest of Allah.

Allah from His infinite mercy chose you to be His guest. One asks, is it that I have performed an action because of which I am being invited or is that my shortcomings have reached a level that its an opportunity for me to visit HIS house and get myself cleansed of the sins? It could be either but what matters is, you will be the guest of 'Rabbul Alameen' (The Lord of Heavens and Earth, you will be the guest of 'Maliki Yaum Ad-Deen' (The Owner of Day of Judgement, you will be the guest of 'Ar-Hamar Rahimeen' (The Most Merciful).

One should thank Allah for the opportunity and make a commitment to change one's life for better and further build their relationship with Allah.

Performing every action in our life with the sole purpose of coming close to and pleasing Allah will not only enrich our lives and fill it with contentment and tranquility, but it will also allow us to satisfy our purpose of existence. As the scholars of the past have commented, if we were to truly understand the essence of Ibadah, and immerse ourselves in it, our life in this Dunya would become a paradise!

Origins

Umrah and Hajj

Allah has enjoined on Muslims the pilgrimage (Hajj) to Makkah during the month of Dhul-Hijja at least once in their lives (provided that they are of sound mind, adequate health and have the financial means to perform it. Umrah can be performed throughout the year. Hajj, as most of us will be aware, is the fourth foundational action of a believer's faith (i.e., the fourth pillar of Islam).

Origins

Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) was commanded by Allah to build a house for His worship in Makkah. Allah called it His house, raised its status to 'Masjid ul Haram' (the Sacred Mosque) and made it the Qibla for all Muslims. Allah then legislated that every Muslim must visit His home at least once in their lives and carry out certain rites and actions which emulate certain actions of Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) and his family, Hajar and Ismail (peace be upon them).

This journey to Allah's house is considered to be one of the main acts of worship in Islam. It is a journey for those desiring closeness and proximity with their Lord and in pursuit of His pleasure.

In the performance of Hajj and Umrah, a believer must complete a number of rites and actions. Whilst there is wisdom behind each of the actions (which we will explore below), we must understand that ultimately, whether we understand this wisdom of why a particular action was legislated or not, as Allah's 'Abds (servants), we simply hear and obey. Once we understand and inculcate these profound words into our lives, we realise that nothing is important except for what is important to Allah and nothing matters except for what matters to Him.

Hajj and Umrah are an excellent example of this. It highlights the fallacy of ranking and the status of individuals based on the ostentatious matters of this world and allows us to attribute value to what truly matters: piety and God-consciousness. As one of the scholars beautifully put it, "Hajj is an experience that equalizes people."

Key Aspects

Allah says:

And complete the Hajj and Umrah for Allah... (Qur'an 2:196)

We are commanded to perform Hajj once in our lifetime in the month of Dhul-Hijja depending on our financial and physical ability. Umrah is known as a mini pilgrimage and can be performed during the year without any restrictions.

It is an obligation to perform Umrah just like Hajj as we find in the Hadith narrated by Umar (Allah be pleased with him).

Jibra'eel said: Islam is to testify that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah alone and that Muhammad is His Messenger, to establish the prayer, to pay the Zakah, to go for Hajj and Umrah. To bathe after Janaaba, to perfect the ablution and to fast in Ramadan. (Bayhaqee)

Ibn Umar (Allah be pleased with him) said, "There is not a single person except that he has to perform the Hajj and Umrah." (Bukhari)

The City of Makkah

Allah's Choice

Indeed, Allah states: "Verily, the first House (of worship) appointed for mankind was that at Bakkah (Makkah), full of blessing, and a guidance for Al-Alamin (mankind and jinn)." [Qur'an, 3:96].

Makkah is the blessed city which is the most beloved land in the sight of Allah and the chosen location of His House. It was here that the final Prophet and guide of the whole of mankind, Muhammad ﷺ, was born and commenced his Prophethood. It is called a City of Peace. Allah says in the Qu'ran.

And [mention, O Muhammad], when Abraham said, "My Lord, make this city [Makkah] secure and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols. (Qur'an, 14:35).

The Ka'bah

Allah commanded Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) and Prophet Ismail (peace be upon him) to raise the foundations of the Ka'bah as mentioned in the Quran.

Some scholars hold the opinion that it was Prophet Adam (peace be upon him) who first constructed the Ka'bah. Then later on Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) built it after it was destroyed by the flood that came at the time of Prophet Nooh (peace be upon him).

Makkah is a Sacred city and has a boundary. To its east is Jiirrana, to its west is Hudaibiya. South east is the valley of Nakhla and to its south is Taneem. The Saudi government has positioned blocks to denote the 'Masjid ul Haram' Boundary.

Allah has called Makkah by five names in the Qu'ran: Makkah, Bakkah, Al-Balad, Al-Qaryah and Ummul-Qura.

The Ka'bah, also known as Baytullah (The House of Allah), is the first house built for humanity to worship Allah. It functions as the Qibla, the direction to which all Muslims pray five times a day. It unites all the Muslims around the world.

Allah mentions in the Qu'ran in Surah Al-Ma'idah, "Allah has made the Ka'bah, the Sacred House, an asylum of security and benefits (e.g. Hajj and Umrah) for mankind." [Qur'an, 5:97]

The reward of prayer offered in Masjid al-Haram is multiplied many times. Jabir bin Abdullah (Allah be pleased with him) narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A prayer in this mosque of mine is better than one thousand prayers anywhere else, except for al-Masjid al-Haram. A prayer in al-Masjid al-Haram is better than one hundred thousand prayers (anywhere else)." [Ahmad]

Another narration mentions the reward of praying in 'Masjid Al-Aqsa to be equal to 250 prayers.

Umrah Guide

how to wear Ihram?

Ihram is made up of two sheets.

1.

Stand with your feet apart to create space, and hold the first sheet behind you, before wrapping one length of the sheet over the other in front of you.

Once you have wrapped the sheet around your lower body, fold over or roll the top of the sheet several times along your waistline to keep it in place, making sure that it ends up higher than your belly button, the awrah has to be covered. Next, take the second sheet and place it around your shoulders.

Make one side longer than the other, and flick the longer length over your shoulder. You can also wear a belt on the lower garment. Make sure to keep the bottom sheet above the navel to make sure that your awrah is always properly covered. Always make sure that you have good coverage at the back for when you go into sujood in salah.

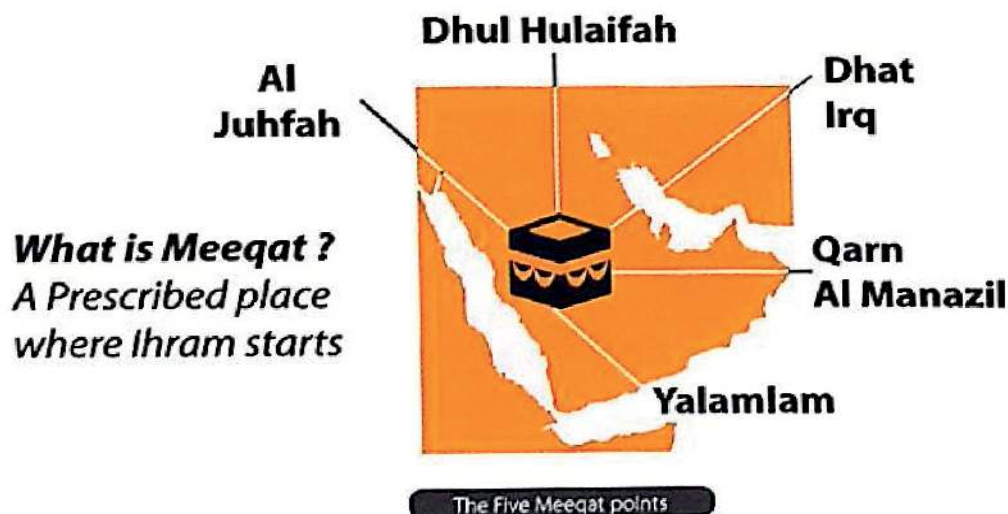

The Meeqat

The duties of Hajj and Umrah begin at the Meeqat, which is any geographical location some distance from Makkah beyond which a pilgrim may not pass without being in Ihram (to be a pilgrim). The Prophet specified five such points for assuming Ihram for people coming from various locations to Makkah. Four of the five Meeqat points are mentioned in the hadith narrated by Abdullah Ibn Abbas (Allah be pleased with him).

Abdullah Ibn Abbas narrates that Allah's Messenger had fixed Dhul Hulayfah as the Miqat for the people of Madinah; al-Juhfah for the people of Sham; and Qarn al-Manazil for the people of Najd; and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. So, these are the Mawaqit for all those living in those places, and besides them for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Hajj and Umrah. Whoever lives within these places should assume Ihram from his dwelling place, and similarly the people of Makkah can assume Ihram from Makkah.

With respect to the fifth Meeqat point, this is covered in a narration of A'ishah (Allah be pleased with her) where she narrates, the Messenger of Allah specified for those coming from Iraq, Dhat Irq (a place 94 km to the north-east of Makkah) as their Meeqat.

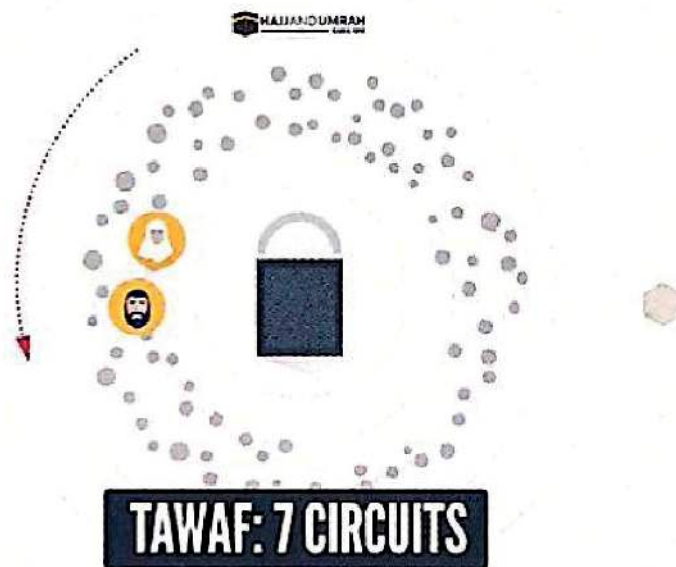

Tawaf

Linguistically, the word is derived from the Arabic verb Taafa which means "to walk around" or "to encircle something." Its technical meaning is to perform seven anti-clockwise circuits around the Ka'bah. One complete circuit of the Ka'bah is known as a Shawt. A pilgrim is required to circumambulate the Ka'bah in an anti-clockwise direction and offer 2 units of prayer behind the 'Maqam Ibrahim (Station of Ibrahim) after completing the Tawaf.

Tawaf starts from Hajar Aswad (Black Stone). It is the stone sent by Allah from the Heavens. Angel Jibreel brought it and Ibrāhīm (peace be upon him) placed it in its location. It is reported that the Prophet kissed it. He also asked Umar (Allah be pleased with him) to be careful and not to harm his fellow pilgrims when trying to kiss it.

Virtues of Tawaf

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Whoever circles the Ka'bah seven times and prays two units (Prayer) will be rewarded as if he has freed a slave. A man does not raise his foot and bring it back down but that ten good deeds will be written for him, and ten bad deeds will be erased, and he will be raised by ten degrees." (Musnad Ahmad)

The Tawaf is an act of devotion intended to spiritually bring the pilgrim closer to God. There are several scholarly explanations which attempt to establish the significance of Tawaf:

(i) Al-Bayt al-Ma'mur

One interpretation is that when pilgrims perform Tawaf around the Ka'bah, they are doing so in tandem with the angels that circumambulate al-Bayt al-Ma'mur (the Frequented House) in the heavenly realm. Allah says:

By the mount. And [by] a Book inscribed. In parchment spread open. And [by] the frequented House.

[Qur'an, 52:1-4]

The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then I was shown Al-Bait-al-Ma'mur (i.e. Allah's House). I asked Jibreel about it and he said, this is Al Bait-ul-Ma'mur where 70,000 angels perform prayers daily and when they leave they never return to it (but always a fresh batch comes into it daily)." (Sunan an-Nasa'i)

(ii) Reclaiming the Tawaf from the practices of the people of Jahiliyyah

Ibn Kathir (raheemaullah) mentioned, "There were people (in the days of pre-Islamic ignorance) who used to perform Tawaf around the House while naked, and Allah ordered them to wear clean, proper clothes that cover the private parts. The Prophet ﷺ then refocused Tawaf to the worship of God and prevented the practice of performing Tawaf naked in the year before his farewell Hajj."

Abu Hurairah narrates:

In the year prior to the last Hajj of the Prophet ﷺ when Allah's Messenger ﷺ made Abu Bakr the leader of the pilgrims, the latter (Abu Bakr) sent me in the company of a group of people to make a public announcement: 'No pagan is allowed to perform Hajj after this year, and no naked person is allowed to perform Tawaf of the Ka'bah.' (Bukhari 1622, Bk 25, Hadith 107).

(iii) Submission to Allah and testifying his oneness

Circumambulating the Ka'bah is a symbolic act of worship and indicates the believer's utter submission to Allah alone. The pilgrims go to Hajj in response to the divine order that Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) conveyed to people. Allah says,

And (remember) when We designated Ibrahim the site of the (Sacred) House (the Ka'bah at Makkah), saying: Ascribe not anything (in worship) with Me, and sanctify My House for those who circumbulate it, and those who stand up (for prayer), and those who bow (submit themselves with humility and obedience to Allah), and make prostration (in prayer). And proclaim to mankind the Hajj (pilgrimage). They will come to you on foot and on every lean camel, they will come from every deep and distant (wide) mountain highway (to perform Hajj). (Qur'an, 22:26-27)

This signifies that the Ka'bah is the spiritual centre of the believers and Muslims have been commanded to pray in the direction of the Ka'bah five times a day. It unites Muslims around the world symbolising the concept of oneness in Islam: one creator, one religion, one nation with one direction of prayer.

When a pilgrim is walking around the Ka'bah, they should glorify Allah, asking Him for guidance, beseech Him for his needs, pray for forgiveness and steadfastness on the religion. And all of these supplications can be done in any language.

Station of Ibraheem

Allah says:

Take as your place of worship the place where Abraham stood (to pray) [Surah al-Baqarah, 2:125]

Maqaam Ibraheem (the Station of Ibraheem) is the stone on which Prophet Ibraheem stood while building the Ka'bah. The footprints of al-Khaleel (Ibraheem, peace be upon him) remained on the rock until the beginning of Islam. (From al-Bidaayah wa'l-Nihaayah, 1/163)

Ibn Umar mentioned, "When the Prophet ﷺ reached Makkah he performed the Tawaf around the Ka'bah (circumambulated) it seven times) and offered a two Rak'at prayer (at the place) behind the station (of Abraham) and then performed the Tawaf (Sa'i) of Safa and Marwa, and verily in Allah's Messenger ﷺ you have a good example." (Sahih al-Bukhari 395, 396)

Multazam

The area between Hajar Aswad (Black stone) and the gate of the Ka'bah is called 'Multazam'. It is considered to be a highly sacred place. Du'ās made here are accepted. If it is possible to reach the Multazam, then cling to it and make Dua. Please remember not to push or harm anyone.

It was narrated that 'Abd al-Rahmaan ibn Safwaan said: When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ conquered Makkah, I said: I will put on my garments, as my house was on the road, and I will wait and see what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ does. So I went and I saw that the Prophet ﷺ had come out of the Ka'bah. He and his Companions were touching the House from the Door to the Black Stone. They had placed their cheeks against the House and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was in the midst of them. (Abu Dawood, 1898; Ahmad) 15124. Narrated by Abu Dawood, 1898; Ahmad, 15124.

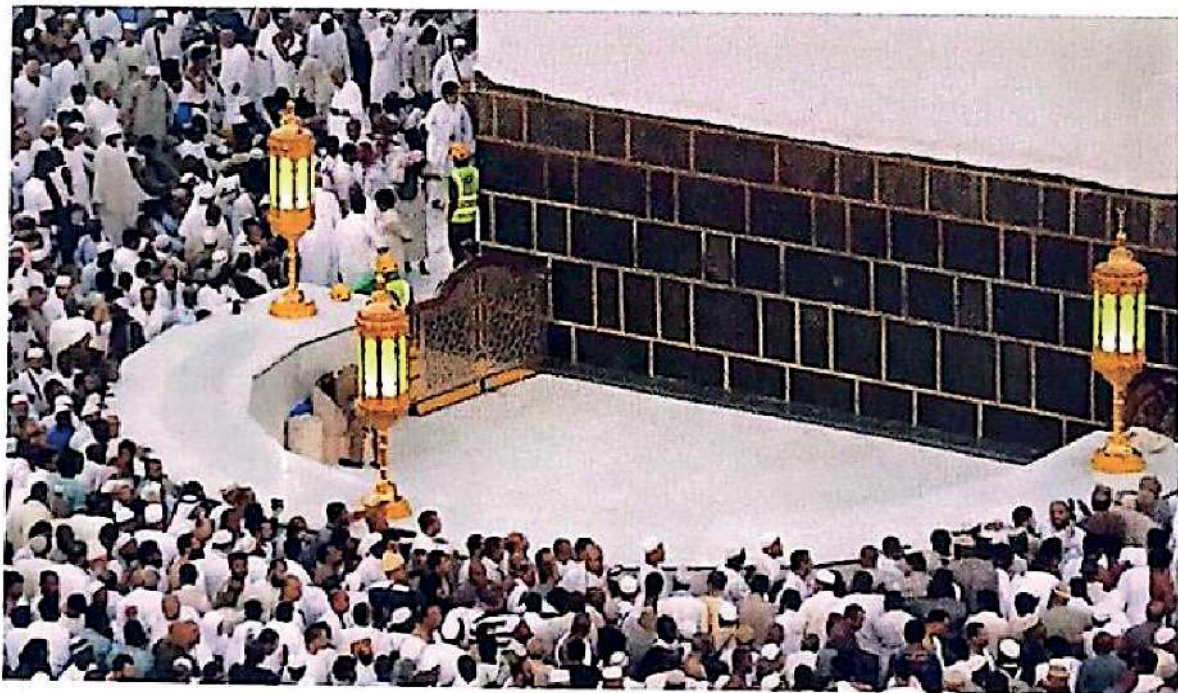

Hateem

The Hateem is a semi-circle beside the Ka'bah and praying in it means you have prayed inside the Ka'bah.

Why it is not joined?

The Quraish at the time of the Prophet and before him considered the Ka'bah to be a sacred place. Once there was a flood and the structure of the Ka'bah suffered damage. The Quraish gathered together and agreed to rebuild the Ka'bah with pure funds. However, during its construction the Quraish ran out of money to complete it. They left the structure (Hateem) with a foundation to show this area was part of the original foundations of the Ka'bah.

After Makkah was conquered, the Prophet mentioned to Aisha (Allah be pleased with her), "Had her people not been so close to the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, I would have rebuilt the Ka'bah on its original foundation laid by Prophet Ibrahim." (Bukhari)

Prayers / Duas

The supplications prescribed by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ are comprehensive and precise and should be used. Although a pilgrim can supplicate to Allah for anything and in any language. Read the suggested supplications in this book on pages 35 and 91.

Zamzam

The well of Zamzam is a miracle. The water of Zamzam started flowing the time of Ismail (peace be upon him) and will carry on flowing until the Day of Judgement. It is a blessed water. Ibn Abbas reported, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, *"The best water on the face of the earth is Zamzam water. In it is food for nourishment and healing for illness."*¹

A Sign Between us and the Hypocrites

Ibn Abbas reported: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, *"Verily, a sign between us and the hypocrites is that they do not drink Zamzam water."*²

It was reported in Sahih Muslim that the Prophet ﷺ said to Abu Dharr, who had stayed near the Ka'bah for forty days and nights with no food or drink other than (Zamzam). The Prophet ﷺ asked him, "Who has been feeding you?" He said, "I have had nothing but Zamzam water."

Sa'ee

Allah makes mention of the Safa and Marwah mountains in the Qu'ran in Surah Baqarah:

“Verily Safa and Marwah are among the landmarks (distinctive signs) of (the Deen of) Allah.” [Qur'an, 2:158]

Sa'ee means to walk / to strive. After completing the Tawaf, a pilgrim must move onto the Sa'ee: i.e., the walk between the mountain tops of Safa and Marwa, replicating the actions of Hajar (Allah be pleased with her) when she was desperately pacing between Safa and Marwa for food and water.

Here you act like Hajar (mother of infant Ismail) when Ibrahim (peace be upon him) left her in Makkah on the command of Allah. She ran out of food after a few days and did not have access to water or shelter for herself or her child. She did not lose hope in Allah. She remained firm and steadfast. She walked and rushed between the mountains of Safa and Marwa in search of sustenance. She would rush if there was any hope of finding food. Then Allah sent Angel Jibreel to hit the earth beneath Ismail's feet with one of his wings, and from there gushed out the miraculous water of Zamzam.

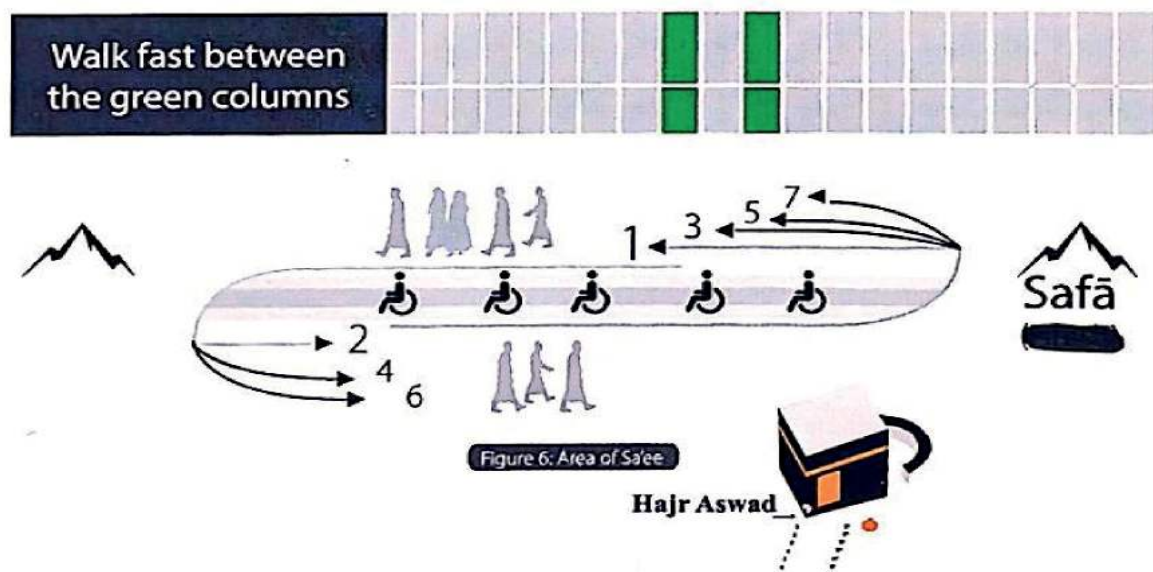

The submission, conviction, steadfastness and utter reliance on Allah shown by Hajar and Ibraheem was so beloved to Allah, that He commanded the believers to imitate this action in one of the greatest acts of worship legislated for the Muslims; the Sa'ee.

Like the Tawaf, a Pilgrim walks between the two mountain tops seven times glorifying his creator, asking for guidance, forgiveness, steadfastness on the religion and anything else which is halal and which his heart desires.

Abdullah bin Abbas narrates that the Prophet ﷺ climbed up Mount Safa when Allah revealed the verse, “And warn your tribe (O Muhammad) of near kindred.” [Quran, 26:214]

After ascending the Safa mountain, he shouted: "Ya Sabahah!" (an Arabic expression when one appeals for help or draws the attention of others to some danger). When the people had gathered around him, the Prophet ﷺ said to them, "If I told you that horsemen were advancing to attack you from the valley on the other side of this mountain, will you believe me?" "Yes", they replied, "We have always found you truthful." The Prophet ﷺ said, "I am a plain warner to you of a coming severe punishment." After this vivid analogy the Prophet ﷺ asked them to save themselves by declaring that Allah was one and that he, Muhammad, was His Messenger. Abu Lahab (his uncle) said, "May you perish! You gathered us only for this reason?" Upon this 'Surah al-Lahab' (Perish the hands of Abu Lahab!) was revealed.

Ihram

Do

Men: Come into the state of Ihram by wearing two pieces of clean garments. Change their slippers and making the intention.

Women: Wear normal clothes and make their intention.

Say

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ عُمْرَةً

Allahumma Labbayka Umrah

"O Allah, here I am at your service for Umrah."

After making the intention, recite the Talbiya:

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ، لَبَّيْكَ - لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ - لَبَّيْكَ
إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنُّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ - لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ

*Labbayk Allahumma labbayk. Labbayka lā sharīka laka labbayk.
Innal hamda wan ni'mata laka wal mulk. Lā sharīka lak.*

"Here we come, O Allah, here we come! Here we come. There is no partner with you. Here we come! Praise indeed, and blessings, are Yours - the Kingdom too! There is no partner with you.

Note: If you are travelling by plane to Jeddah then the intention should be made before landing as you would be crossing the Meeqat. Making the intention 45 mins-1 hour before landing is a safe option for those who do not know.

If you are travelling from Madinah then you will stop at Dhul Hulaifa (Meeqat point) and make the intention for Umrah. You can wear clothes of Ihram at your hotel or at Dhul Hulaifa. You do not have to offer 2 Rak'ah optional prayer for coming in the state of Ihram. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ assumed Ihram after an obligatory prayer, so it is better if you are able to do the same.

Tawaf

Do Be in state of Wudu. Enter Masjid Al-Harām with your right foot saying any of the supplications for entering mosque e.g

Say اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ لِي أَبْوَابَ رَحْمَتِكَ
Allahumma aftāh lī abwāba rahmatika
"O Allah open to me, Your doors of Mercy."

Do Men need to uncover their right shoulder before starting Tawaf. This is called 'Ittibā'.

Do Start the Tawaf from Hajar Aswad (Black Stone) by kissing and touching it. If you can't then raise your right hand, point to the black stone and say the Takbir. If you cannot see the Black Stone then you can look for the green light on your right hand side. It has been placed opposite to the black stone to specify the 'Tawaf' starting point. The palm of your

Say بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ
Bismillāhi Allahu Akbar
"In the name of Allah, the Greatest."

Note:

- You can make any Du'a in any language.
- To start a new round, you will raise your hand, face the palm towards the Black Stone and say Allahu Akbar.
- It is recommended for men only to complete the first 3 rounds by walking at a brisk pace (if possible), which is called Raml. Then the remaining 4 rounds are completed by walking at a normal pace.
- In all seven circles of Tawaf, any Dua can be made. You can read the Du'a below, between the Yemini Corner and Black Stone.

رَبَّنَا آتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

Do

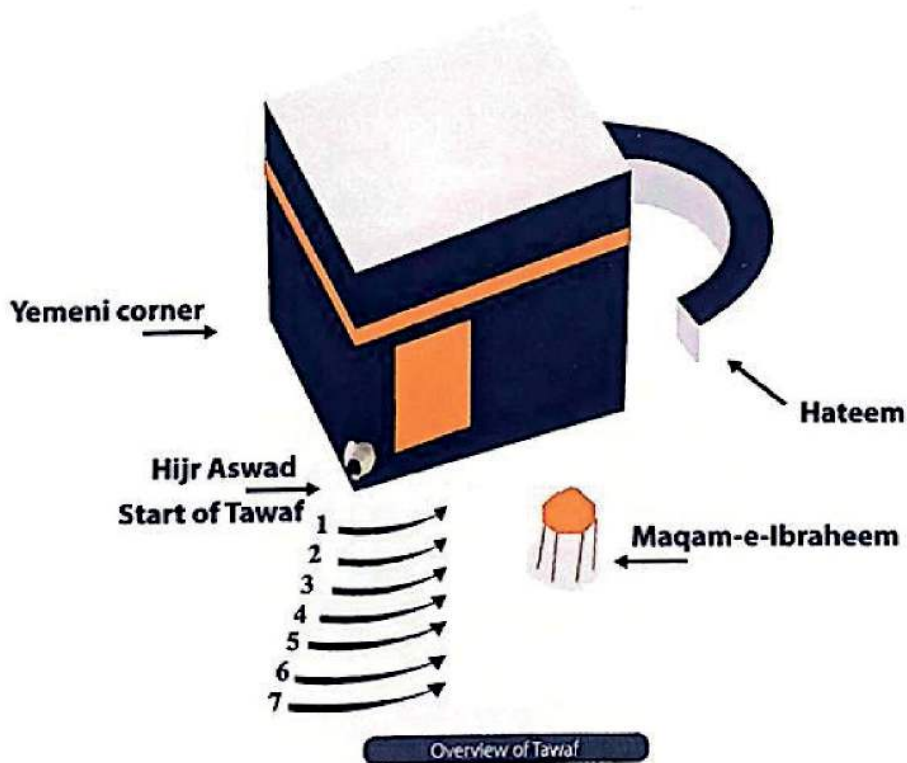

Rabbanā ātina fī ad dunyā hasanatan wa fī al āakhirah hasanatan wa qinā 'athāba an nār

"O our Rabb grant us good in the dunyā and good in the āakhirah and save us from the torment of the free."

You will complete the first round after reaching the Black Stone.

You will follow the same action for each round as the first one. At the start of the round, raise your hand facing the Black Stone and say the Takbir and busy yourself in making dua.

After completing the 7th round, the Tawaf ends. You do not raise your hand at the end of the 7th round.

Duas

Prophet Adam made this Dua for Istighfar (seeking forgiveness)

رَبَّنَا ظَلَمْنَا أَنْفُسَنَا وَإِنْ لَمْ تَغْفِرْ لَنَا وَتَرْحَمْنَا
لَنَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ

Rabbana thalamna anfusana wain lam taghfir lana watarhamna lanakoonanna mina alkhasireena

Our Lord! We have wronged ourselves. If You forgive us not, and bestow not upon us Your Mercy, we shall certainly be of the losers. (Qu'ran 7:23)

Prophet Yunus made this Dua for Istighfar in times of hardship

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ إِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ

A'llaha illa anta Subhanaka Inni Kuntu Minadhaalimeen

No one has the right to be worshipped but You (O Allah), Gloried
(and Exalted) are You. Truly, I have been of the wrong-doers."
(Qur'an, 21:87)

Prophet Ayub made this Dua after a long time of suffering

أَنِّي مَسْنِيَ الضُّرِّ وَأَنْتَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ

Anni massani-yadh-dhurru wa 'anta arhamur-Raahimeen

Verily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy. (Qu'ran, 21:83)

رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيَّ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْحِسَابُ

Rabbana ghfir li wa li wallidayya wa lil Mu'mineena yawma yaqumul hisaab

Our Lord! Forgive me and my parents, and the believers on the Day when the reckoning will be established. (Qu'ran 14:41)

Placing Trust in Allah

رَبَّنَا عَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ أَنَبْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ

Rabbana 'alayka tawakkalna wa-ilayka anabna wa-ilaykal masir
Our Lord! In You we put our trust, and to You we turn in repentance, and to You is (our) return. (Qu'ran 60:4)

For Good Speech

رَبِّ اشْرَحْ لِي صَدْرِي وَيَسِّرْ لِي أَمْرِي وَاحْلُلْ عُقْدَةً مِنْ لِسَانِي يَفْقَهُوا قَوْلِي

Rabish rahli sadri wa yassir li amri wahlul 'uqdatam min lisaani, yafqahu qauli

O my Lord! Open for me my chest (grant me self-condence, contentment, and boldness). And ease my task for me; And make loose the knot from my tongue, (i.e. remove the incorrectness from my speech). That they understand my speech. (Qu'ran, 20:25)

Some Dua from Ahadith

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ جَهْدِ الْبَلَاءِ وَ دَرَكِ الشَّقَاءِ وَ سُوءِ
الْقَضَاءِ وَ شِمَاتَةِ الْاَعْدَاءِ

"Oh Allah, I seek refuge in you from the difficulties of hardships.
And the acquisition of wretchedness, and ill-fate, and the enemy's malicious rejoicing for my suffering."

(Sahih Al Bukhari, 6347)

يَا حَيُّ يَا قَيُّوْمُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ اَسْتَغِيْثُ

"O Living and Eternal Maintainer! By Your mercy I seek help!"

(Sunan Tirmidhi, 3524)

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا سَهْلَ اِلَّا مَا جَعَلْتَهُ سَهْلًا وَ اَنْتَ تَجْعَلُ الْحَزْنَ اِذَا شِئْتَ سَهْلًا

"O Allah! There is no ease except that which You make easy, and indeed You, when You want, make grief and difficulties easy."

(Sahih Ibn Hibban, 970)

After Tawaf

Do

After completing the Tawaf, men should cover both their shoulders. Pilgrims should make their way to the Maqam Ibrahim and offer 2 units of prayer behind it. If space cannot be found then prayer can be offered anywhere in Masjid ul Haram.

As for what to recite, then in the first Rak'ah after Sūrah Al-Fātihah you should recite Surah Al-Kafiroon (chapter 109), and in the second Rak'ah after Sūrah Al-Fātihah you should recite Sūrah Al-Ikhlās.

Surah Ikhlas

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ

Qul huwal laahu ahad

Say: He is Allah, the One and Only;

اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ

Allah hus-samad

Allah, the Eternal, Absolute;

لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ

Lam yalid wa lam yoolad

He neither begets nor is born,

وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ

Lam yalid wa lam yoolad

Surah Al-Kafiroon

قُلْ يَٰٓأَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ

Qul yaa-ai yuhal kaafiroon
Say, "O disbelievers,

لَا أَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ

Laa a'budu ma t'abudoon
I do not worship what you worship.

وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عِبُدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ

Wa laa antum 'aabidoona maa a'bud
Nor will you ever worship what I worship.

وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ مَا عَبَدْتُمْ

Wa laa ana 'abidum maa 'abattum
Nor will I be a worshipper of what you worship.

وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ

Wa laa antum 'aabidoona maa a'bud
Nor will you ever worship what I worship.

لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِينِ

Lakum deenukum wa liya deen.
For you is your religion, and for me is my religion."

Do Drink Zamzam water after completing your two Rak'ah.

Now go to Safā and Marwah to perform the Sa'ee, walking between them 7 times starting from Safā and ending at Marwa. This results in us walking from Safā to Marwah 4 times and 3 times from Marwah to Safā.

Sa'ee (Safā & Marwah)

Note: Make your way to mount Safā (You will be able to see signs for the ground, first, second and third floor). The choice is yours. Men will cover the shoulder for Sa'ey.

Do Recite part of the verse from Surah Al-Baqarah (1) when you can see Mount Safa or while walking towards it. Once you are on Mount Safa, face the Ka'bah and say Allahu'Akbar and read Dua (2) and (3). Dua (3) can be read three times with your personal Dua in between.

إِنَّ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةَ مِنْ شَعَائِرِ اللَّهِ (1)

Innas-safaa wal marwata min sha'aa'irillaah

Indeed, Safa and Marwa are from the Signs of Allah.

(Surah Al-Baqarah, 2:158)

Say Thereafter, recite the following Dua:

أَبْدَأُ بِمَا بَدَأَ اللَّهُ بِهِ (2)

Abda'u bimā bad'allahu bihi.

I begin with that which Allah has begun with.

Do Dua (1) and (2) are only to be recited once at the beginning of Sa'ee. Dua (3) can be recited at the start of each Sa'ee circuit.

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ، وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ (3)

Lā ilāha illallāhu wahdahu lā sharīkalahu, lahul mulku walahul hamdu wa huwa 'alā kulli shay'in qadīr.

There is no deity except Allah, alone without a partner. To Him belongs the Dominion, and to Him belongs all praise. He gives life and death and He has power over everything.

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ، أَنْجَزَ وَعْدَهُ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهُ وَهَزَمَ الْأَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهُ

Lā ilāha illallāhu wahdah(u), anjaza wa'dahu wa nasara 'abdahu wa hazama l-ahzāba wahdah.

There is no deity except Allah alone. He fulfilled His promise, supported His slave and defeated the confederates alone.

You can follow the below sequence to make Dua, as it is a Sunnah.

1. Read above Dua (3) written in Arabic – Lā ilāha illallāh.. untill the end then make personal Du'ā. After completing
2. Read Dua (3) in Arabic again – Lā ilāha illallāh.. untill the end then make personal Du'ā. After completing.
3. Read Dua (3) in Arabic – lā ilāha illallāh... – now walk to Marwah

Start walking towards Marwah (You may praise Allah and make any supplication in any language).

Men should run between the two green sections (lights) if they can. Women walk at their normal pace. Once you reach Mount Marwah, this would complete 'Round 1'.

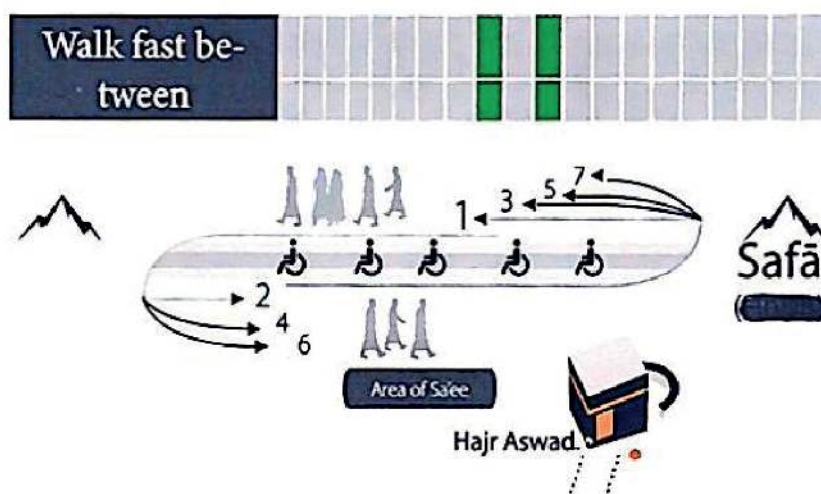

Say

When on top of Mount Marwah, say Allahu Akbar three times while facing the Ka'bah and make the same Du'a three times with your personal Dua in between as you did on Mount Safa. Then move towards Safa. This will be your 2nd walk.

Do

Carry on with your prayers and repeat until you complete all 7 lengths.

End of Sa'ee: Upon reaching mount Marwah for the last time, you have completed the Sa'ee.

Tahallul

After completing the Sa'ee, the pilgrim must shave/trim their hair to exit the state of Ihram. Men should get their heads completely shaved or get their hair trimmed evenly. Both shaving and trimming are permissible for men, though shaving is preferable. Women should however only clip their hair by 1-2 inches from the ends.

Note: Barber shops can be found in the basement of the clock tower and they are called Hallaq in Arabic.

Umrah is now Complete

The restrictions of Ihram are now finished. You can now wear your everyday clothes. Essentials can be bought from the clock tower. Be thankful to Allah that He provided you the opportunity to perform Umrah and try to lead rest of your life according to the commandments of your Creator.

Suggested Umrah Plan

After you have performed Umrah and have rested, you will have ample time on your hands. Below is a suggested plan of making yourself busy with various acts of worship during Hajj and Umrah, or your time in Madinah Al-Munawarra.

- Wake up 2 hours before Fajr for the Qiyam ul Lail (night prayer).
- Pray Qiyam ul Lail (night prayer). This is one of the best times to make Dua.
- Pray the Sunnah of Fajr and then the Fajr prayer.
- Stay in Masjid ul Haram, complete your Morning Adhkaar (Remembrance of Allah).
- Recite Qu'ran, try to complete 1 chapter. Set yourself a target of completing 30 chapters during your stay in Makkah and Madinah.
- Perform two Ra'kah of Shurooq (after sunrising).
- Give some Sadaqah (charity).
- Perform Tawaf and return to the hotel for breakfast.
- Take a power nap and wake up 1-2 hours before Dhuhr prayer.
- Pray Dhuhr in congregation. Complete your Sunnahs and recite Qu'ran.
- Perform Tawaf and return to the hotel for lunch.
- Rest and prepare to stay in Masjid ul Haram from Asr till Isha. You should recite Qu'ran, Adhkaar (remembrance of Allah), and perform Tawaf. Remember to make loads of Dua.
- Repeat for the next day

Umrah Q & A

1. Can I perform another Umrah?

Scholars are of the opinion that one Umrah is sufficient when visiting Makkah as was the practice of the Prophet ﷺ but if you insist then you will have to go to the Meeqat point, put on your clothes of Ihram and make the intention.

2. Can I perform Umrah on behalf of anyone?

Yes, Umrah can be performed for someone else on the conditions:

- a. You have already performed your Umrah.
- b. The person you intend to perform Umrah for has passed away or is physically unable to perform Umrah even in a wheelchair.

3. Can I trim my hair after completing Umrah?

Yes, you can trim but you have to ensure that it is equally trimmed.

4. Can I bring Zamzam back with me?

Yes, generally each airline will allow you to take back 5 liters of Zamzam water bottles that you can buy from the airport. However some airlines may not allow it unless you have an Umrah visa.

5. How much money should I keep?

This depends on the amount of shopping you intend to do and also depends on the number of days you will be staying. On average, 2500 SAR for a 8-9 day trip should be more than enough Insha'Allah.

6. If a female starts menstruating before the Meeqat, what should be done?

She should still make the intention for Umrah and stay in Ihram. She should not enter Masjid ul Haram. She should wait for the menstruation cycle to complete. Once it finishes, she can take a shower, change her clothes and perform Umrah.

7. What if the menstruating women is not pure and she has to travel?

She should access a religious guide or speak with a local Masjid ul Haram Imam and acquire a ruling to perform Umrah.

8. While I was in the state of Ihram, I used scented soap by mistake. Do I have to pay a penalty?

If it was by mistake then no, do Istighfar (seeking forgiveness from Allah) and try to be careful.

9. Can men wear undergarments when in the state of Ihram?

No, men are only allowed to wear two pieces of unstitched cloth, consisting of an upper garment and lower garment.

10. I have a medical condition and may have to wear undergarments while in the state of Ihram.

In the case of a valid condition, you are allowed to wear undergarments but please check with your local religious guide.

Funeral Prayer

After completing congregational prayers in Masjid ul-Haram and Madinah Al-Munawarra, you will often hear, 'Salatul alal Mayyiti yarhamu hullah or yarhamu kumullah' or similar. This announcement is to inform people that there is going to be a funeral prayer for the deceased, may Allah have mercy on them.

Please see the guide on the following pages on how to perform the funeral prayers.

HOW TO PERFORM SALATUL JANAZAH

It's the right of a Muslim that when he/she passes away that other Muslims should pray the Janazah prayer for them.

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ اتَّبَعَ جَنَازَةَ مُسْلِمٍ إِيْمَانًا وَاحْتِسَابًا وَكَانَ مَعَهُ حَتَّى يَصْلَى عَلَيْهَا وَيُفْرَغَ مِنْ دَفْنِهَا فَإِنَّهُ يَرْجِعُ مِنَ الْأَجْرِ بِقِرَاطَيْنِ كُلِّ قِرَاطٍ مِثْلُ أُحُدٍ وَمَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ رَجَعَ قَبْلَ أَنْ تُدْفَنَ فَإِنَّهُ يَرْجِعُ بِقِرَاطٍ

Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Whoever follows the funeral of Muslim, in faith and seeking reward, and he remains with it until the prayer is offered and the burial ceremony is finished, then he will return with two great rewards. Each reward is like the size of mount Uhud. Whoever offers the funeral prayer and returns before the burial, then he will return with one great reward." - (Sahih al-Bukhari 47, Sahih muslim 945)

In many Ahaadith, the Prophet Muhammad (s) emphasised and encouraged the Muslims to attend funeral ceremonies. Every Muslim male should try his best to fulfil his duty towards the deceased. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and his Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) explained how to pray salat al-Janazah (funeral prayer). It is done as follows:

Note: During the funeral prayer, the imam leading it will say the takbir (Allah hu akbar) four times at different intervals. There are two opinions regarding raising the hands at each takbir. A person can raise the hands or not raise them. Both opinions are valid.

Both men & women can offer the funeral prayer.

In general:

Say the first takbir and recite al-Fatihah.
Say the second takbir and send blessings on the Prophet.
Say the third takbir and make dua' for the deceased.
Say the fourth takbir and offer salam.

hammad and the family of Muhammad as You have blessed Ibrahim and the family of Ibrahim. You are Praiseworthy, Most Glorious.

raising the hands, and recite the Du'aa for the Deceased. According to one opinion, you can also raise your hands each time you say the takbeer.

O Allah, forgive him and have mercy on him, and give him strength and pardon him. Be generous to him, and cause his entrance to be wide, and wash him with water and snow and hail. Cleanse him of his transgressions as white cloth is cleansed of stains.
Give him an abode better than his home, and a family better than his family, and a wife better than his wife.
Take him into Paradise, and protect him from the punishment of the grave (and from the punishment of Hell-fire).

Then say the final Takbeer:
"Al-lahu Akbar" without raising the hands.

Jabal Noor

The mountain is also known as Jabal Noor (the Mountain of Light) is located four kilometers away from the Ka'bah in Makkah. It has a height of 634 meters. The Cave of Hira is situated inside the mountain. The cave overlooks the north and its entrance points directly towards the Ka'bah.

The Prophet ﷺ first began to have revelations in the form of good dreams which came true. Then he began to like solitude. He would go to the Cave of Hira and meditate there in solitude for a number of days and nights. He would take provisions with him to stay for an extended period, and when he returned to Khadija (Allah be pleased with her), he would stock up again and go back to the cave. This was his practice until truth was revealed to him by an angel while he was in the Cave of Hira.

Cave of Thawr

This is the cave where the Prophet ﷺ and his Companion Abu Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) sought refuge for three days and nights from the Quraysh after leaving Makkah and emigrating to Madinah.

On arrival, Abu Bakr entered first to make sure it was safe and cleared away anything that might injure the Prophet ﷺ. He covered some of holes in the cave. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ entered after him and went to sleep on his lap. During this time Abu Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) was stung by an insect but he did not twitch fearing that he might wake up the Prophet ﷺ. The pain was so intense that tears began to run down his eyes and onto the Prophet's ﷺ face. The Prophet ﷺ woke up and saw Abu Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) in pain. He applied his blessed saliva to Abu Bakr's injury and the pain disappeared.

Mina

Mina is a valley located to the east of Makkah. Pilgrims spend 5-6 days here during Hajj.

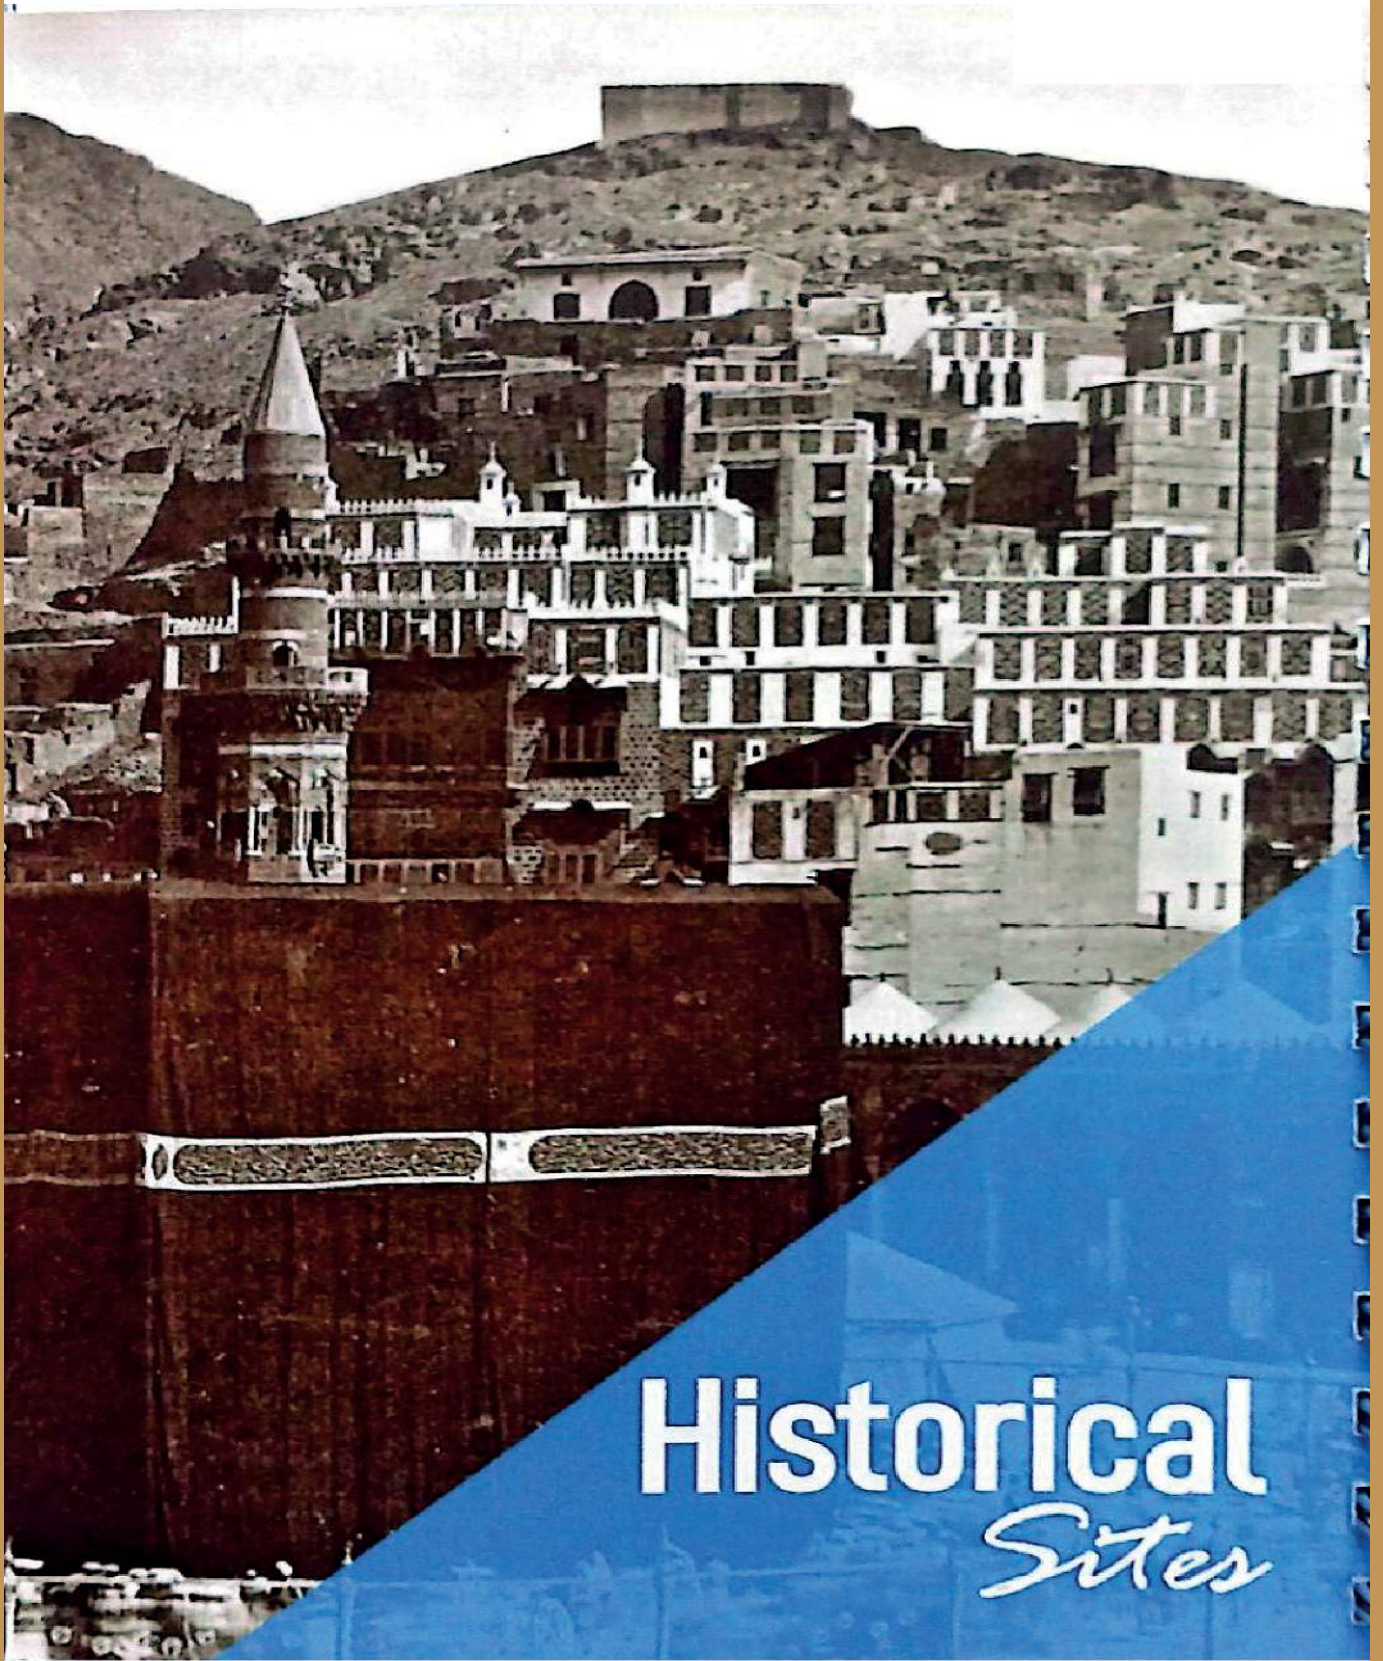

It is referenced in the Qu'ran in Surah Baqarah:

"And remember Allah during [specific] numbered days. Then whoever hastens [his departure] in two days – there is no sin upon him; and whoever delays [until the third] – there is no sin upon him – for him who fears Allah. And fear Allah and know that unto Him you will be gathered." [Qur'an, 2:203]

The word Mina means 'to flow' as it is here that the blood of sacrificial animals flow during the day of Eid ul-Adha. During the Farewell Pilgrimage (Hajjat-ul- Wada), the Prophet ﷺ brought 100 camels with him to be sacrificed. On the 10th Dhul Hijjah the Prophet ﷺ stoned the Jamarat and went back to his camp in Mina where he sacrificed 63 of the camels. Ali (Allah be pleased with him) slaughtered the remaining 37 camels and the Prophet ﷺ instructed that a part of each camel is cooked and served to him and his Companions.

After the camels had been sacrificed, the Prophet ﷺ had his head shaved.

Jamarat

Pilgrims visit this area to throw 7 pebbles at each of them during the days of Hajj. The Jamarat are three structures situated in Mina. They symbolically represent the locations where Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) brought Ismail in order to sacrifice him on Allah's command and the Shaitaan repeatedly tried to dissuade Ibrahim from carrying out Allah's command.

Masjid Al-Khayf

Masjid al-Khayf is a Masjid whose virtues are mentioned in some Hadiths. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Seventy Prophets prayed in Masjid al-Khayf." [Majma'uz Zawahid]

Yazeed bin Aswad says that when he performed Hajj with the Prophet ﷺ, it was at the Masjid Khayf that he performed the Fajr Salah with the Prophet. Abdur-Rahman bin Mu'adh reports that when the Prophet ﷺ delivered a sermon in Mina, he instructed the Muhajireen to set up camp in front of Masjid al-Khayf and the Ansaar to set up camp behind it. The rest of the Muslims were to camp behind them. [Abu Dawood]

Abdullah bin Abbas (Allah be pleased with him) narrates that it was in Masjid al-Khayf that the Prophet ﷺ addressed them. After praising Allah he said: "Allah will set right the affairs of the person whose prime concern is the Akhirah (Hereafter). Allah will also grant him self-sufficiency and the world will humble itself before him. As for the person whose prime concern is this world, Allah will scatter his affairs, place poverty in front of him and all he will get of this world will be what has been predestined for him." [Tabraani]

Masjid Al-Baia – Aqaba

The Prophet ﷺ made contact with various tribes during the time they came into Makkah for their festivals, pilgrimage and trade. He would invite them to Islam. His uncles Abu Lahab and Abu Jahal will go after the Prophet and persuade people not to follow him. In order to avoid this issue, he would come out of Makkah to meet the caravans and speak with them about believing in Allah.

On one of the nights, 6 people came from Madinah (known as Yathrib at that time). They accepted Prophet Muhammad's teachings, embraced Islam and made a pledge to support the Prophet ﷺ. This is the place of that pledge.

Wadi Muhassir

Pilgrims pass Wadi Muhassar during the pilgrimage. Wadi Muhassar is a valley situated between Muzdalifa and Mina. It is advised to walk briskly through this area as it is reported to be the location where the army of Abraha was destroyed as they marched towards Makkah.

Allah mentions it in the Qu'ran in Surah Al-Fil. Referring to this episode, Allah says, "Have you not seen how your Rabb dealt with the people of the elephants? Did He not lay their plans to waste and send against them flights of the birds who pelted them with clay pebbles, making them look (destroyed) like eaten fodder?" [Qur'an, 105:1-5]

Abraha al-Ashram was the viceroy of Negus, the King of Abyssinia. He was a Christian who ruled over the Yemen, building an imposing cathedral in San'a of marble and gold plated wood and naming it 'al-Qulays'. He intended to divert the Arab pilgrimage to San'a.

Referring to Muzdalifah, Allah mentions in Surah Baqarah, "When you leave Arafat, then remember Allah at the Mash'arul Haram (The Sacred Monument)." [Qur'an, 2:198]

During the farewell Hajj, the Prophet ﷺ combined the Maghrib and Isha prayers together at Muzdalifah. He stayed at the spot where the present Masjid Mash'arul Haram currently is (towards the Qibla side). From there, the Prophet ﷺ said, "Although I am staying here, you may stay anywhere throughout Muzdalifah." [Muslim].

During Hajj, it is Wajib to perform Maghrib and Isha together in Muzdalifah at Isha time. Wuqoof (stay) of Muzdalifah is also Wajib and its time begins from Sub'h Saadiq and ends at sunrise. Even if one spent a little portion of their time in Muzdalifah, they will be absolved of this obligation. However, it is best to remain until just before sunrise. Although pebbles for pelting the Jamarat may be collected from anywhere, they are best collected from Muzdalifah.

Historical Sites in Makkah

Masjid Mashar al-Haram is a mosque situated in Muzdalifah which marks the area where the Prophet ﷺ supplicated during his Farewell Pilgrimage. It is located midway between Masjid al-Khayf in Mina and Masjid al-Namirah in Arafat.

Jabal Arafat (Arabic: جبل عرفات) is a small mountain in the plain of Arafat. It's about 18+km from Masjid ul Haram and being present at Arafat during the days of Hajj is a must. Pilgrims have to be at the ground of Arafat on the ninth of Zull Hijjah. It's also known as Jabal Ar-Rahma (Mountain of Mercy).
